About Jeno Somlai Jeno Somlai is a jazz and Latin jazz musician living in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. His professional career began when he first started playing out as a percussionist at the age of 13. After nearly 15 years playing drums, Jeno became interested in piano and has been studying with Mark Davis in Milwaukee, WI ever since. Jeno has worked with a variety of musicians and now spearheads his own projects including his debut CD, Let It Go, and the formation of the Jeno Somlai Sextet, a Latin jazz group – both heavily influenced by a variety of styles in the Afro-Cuban/Latin genres.

New Media at the Charles Allis through September 15, 2010

What is new about new media? Artists James Barany, Jill Casid, Sabine Gruffat, Stephen Hilyard and Chele Isaac approach this question by exploring the interplay between "new" and "old" media forms - adapting established and emerging technologies for artistic inspiration against the backdrop of the Charles Allis.

About the Charles Allis Art Museum On the National Registry of Historic Places, the lavish 1911 home of Charles and Sarah Allis contains a world-class art collection that spans more than 2,000 years and includes impressive Classic antiquities, Renaissance bronzes, Asian ceramics and stunning decorative arts. Changing exhibitions feature local and regional artists, making the museum a vibrant center for Wisconsin arts not to be missed. Regular Museum Hours: Wednesday - Sunday, 1-5 p.m. General Admission: $5/adult, $3/student & senior (62+), Free for museum members, children 12 & under, and active military.
